Ditch Maintenance & Phragmites

Phragmites are the primary invasive species target of Chesterfield Township. Phragmites create a major hindrance to our waterways: Reducing flow capacity to many of our drains, reducing visibility of the beautiful views of our lakes and streams, and limiting access for recreation by choking off our drains and streams. Phragmites are also limiting visibility along roadways, making unsafe conditions for drivers. Flooding and cutting in combination with multi-year herbicide applications can control Phragmites.

What can be done to control Phragmites?

- Prevention: Use clean equipment, free of the potential seeds which take root and expand quickly
- Early Detection: Know how to identify this invasive species
- Rapid Response: Begin mitigation the first season they are found

The best method of controlling Phragmites without the use of chemicals and herbicides is to drown the plant by the repeated cutting of stems below the waterline. It is best to cut it when the phragmites reach four feet or more above the waterline, and by cutting the stems as low as possible below the waterline.

The best method of controlling Phragmites without flooding, is achieved with a multi-year plan of cutting in combination with herbicide and surfactant applied Mid-August through September.

When is the best time to cut?

- November through May
- Not within the first two weeks following a herbicide treatment
- If cutting with riding equipment the best time to cut to avoid soil disturbance is when the ground is frozen, late January.

What do I do with the cuttings?

- Roll down and leave in place
- Mow down and leave in place
- Mow down and remove from the site in bulk
- Hand cut and bag them for removal with trash
- Hand cut and bag the heads only and remove with trash

Keeping the Anchor Bay area clean from clutter

As owner of JDOG Anchor Bay and someone with 18 years of Military experience in the Army and National Guard, service to my community has always been a priority in my life. Hi Chesterfield, my name is Stephen Warren and for 7 years my dedicated family and I have been committed to providing orderly spaces for our clients and their families to thrive.

My wife, Nancy, daughter, Katrina, and son Steven share our work ethic and vision with many franchise branches of the JDOG community across the country. JDOG is well established both nationally and locally with 5 locations in Michigan alone. We proudly and collectively share a belief that clutter-free environments foster clarity, reduces stress, and enhances productivity, creating a space where one can focus on what truly matters.

With a background as a Military Police Supervisor during 9/11, I honed the skill of turning chaos into order. Inspired by my deployments, I continue to give back to communities, enrich the lives of local veterans, and relieve our clients of the disturbance of clutter.

The market in Chesterfield Township remains strong with continued low sales as the result of low inventory. This trend does appear to be reversing as the year-over-year figures suggest. Please note that with small amounts of data, average sale price is likely to fluctuate, noticeably, and is a less reliable indicator than Days on Market. Stats and Trends provided by the Grosse Pointe Board of REALTORS® All information deemed reliable but not guaranteed and should be independently verified. Information was derived from a variety of sources including, but not limited to, Realcomp II Ltd. and the Great Lakes Repository®.
<sup>1</sup>The Absorption Rate is the rate of home sales taken by dividing the number of sales by the inventory. Above 18.3% is considered a seller's market.

UNDERSTANDING THE NUMBERS

Average Sale Price – Healthy: Increasing home values are an indication of a healthy community. This is typically a balance of fiscal responsibility, care for residents and stakeholders, services, and schools.

Number of Sales – Poor: Declining sales are an indication of the impact low inventory is having on the Community. The solution to this problem is not to get existing owners to sell, but to increase or incentivize the construction of new residences.

Days on Market (DOM) – Good: In the 30 day range, “Days on the Market” or DOM regardless of moving up, down, or remaining the same indicates strong buyer demand.

Inventory – Poor: The lack of inventory remains the primary factor for both higher prices and fewer sales, it is never good to see the number of homes available decline. House prices will continue to rise, making now the best time to buy a home.

Absorption Rate – Confusing: Both a decline quarter over quarter and an increase year over year are a good thing. The year over year increase is good because the rate last period was significantly low. Had it fallen further it would have indicated a serious problem for housing. The decrease from last quarter, however, is also good because an Absorption Rate that is too elevated will negatively impact the housing market because it deters demand.

An absorption rate between 15.4% and 18.3% is considered a market in balance. Higher favors sellers, lower favors buyers.
